1	pax	If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance; o Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops; o Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour; o If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely; o Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and o Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour. • If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support.
