1	UNIT	PROVISION IN CASE OF OCCURRENCE OF TYPHOON AND OTHER FORTUITOUS EVENTS: •If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur before the educational tour schedule, the touring services may offer flexibility in the field trip itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour. •If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: oAssess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance; oDevice alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops; oArrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour; oIf outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely; oProvide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and oAny alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour. •If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: oProvide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and oProvide access to medical assistance or emergency services if needed. Note: -Tour activities and dates are subject to change based on recommendations of the end-user. -The final itinerary should be approved by the end-user and must adhere to existing health and safety protocols. -No single use plastic in any of the activities	53	14,750.00	781,750.00
